

B. Tait Kellogg
Curriculum Vita

City, Culture, and Community Interdisciplinary Doctoral Program
220 Newcomb Hall
New Orleans, LA 70118
bkellog@tulane.edu

EDUCATION

Tulane University New Orleans, LA

Doctor of Philosophy City, Culture, and Community- Sociology, Expected May 2019

Columbia University, Teachers College New York, NY

Masters of Arts Higher and Postsecondary Education, October 2011

Millsaps College Jackson, MS

Bachelors of Arts Religious Studies – Sociology Minor, May 2010

Business Advantage Program (core business courses), June 2009

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Spencer Foundation Qualitative Research Fellow - Education Research Alliance

The New “One Best System?”: Urban Governance and Educational Practice in the Portfolio Management Model, Funded by the Lyle Spencer Research Award. January 2016- Present.

- Full project includes a mixed-methods comparison study of three portfolio management school districts: Denver, Los Angeles, and New Orleans
- Fellowship includes qualitative interviews with leaders in New Orleans schools

Social Work Research, Evaluation Team Member

The Relationship Education Project (Dating Violence Education Non-Profit), September 2015-Present.

- Worked directly with community member to conduct research on their interventional dating violence programs in high schools.
- Supervised by Dr. Fred Buttell, Professor of Social Work
- Received the Community-Based Research Grant from the Tulane Center for Public Service

Campus Compact Research Fellow

Community Engagement Professionals Project, June 2015-December 2015.

- Project organized and supervised by Dr. Lina Dostilio, Duquesne University
- Wrote chapter with co-author on the institutionalization of community engagement on postsecondary campuses

PUBLICATIONS

Weaver, Laura and Tait Kellogg. (2015). “Attributes of Community Engagement Professionals Seeking to Institutionalize Community-Campus Engagement.” In L.D. Dostilio (Ed.), Community Engagement Professionals Project: Establishing a Preliminary Competency Model for Second Generation CEPs. (92-109). Boston, MA: Campus Compact.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

University/ Community Partnerships, College Access, Evaluation Methodology, Applied Sociology

WORKING PAPERS

Horner, Jocelyn, Tait Kellogg, and Kayla Jackson. "HerStory NOLA: Digital Storytelling as an Approach to Critical Community Service Learning."

Kellogg, Tait. "A Visual Analysis of Service-Learning Websites."

CONFERENCE PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

"Digital Storytelling as a Service Learning Tool in New Orleans Schools."

Presented at the 15th Annual Conference for the International Association for Research on Service-Learning and Community Engagement. Boston, MA: November 2015.

Funded by the IARSCLE Graduate Student Scholarship.

"Visual Boundaries: How Images of College Civic Engagement Reinforce Ideas of Community Otherness."

Presented at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Society for the Study of Social Problems. Chicago, IL: August 2015

Funded by the SSSP Lee Student Support Fund.

"Herstory NOLA: A Case Study of Graduate Student Social Innovation."

To be presented at the 6th annual Ashoka U Exchange as a part of the panel: "Raising Awareness on Campus and in the Community." New Orleans, LA: February 2016.

Funded by the Taylor Scholarship.

LEADERSHIP AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

City, Culture, and Community Symposium Committee, Logistics Chair, August 2015- Present

Organizing, marketing, and leading team for 2016 interdisciplinary Tulane graduate student symposium entitled "Social Justice and the City: Implications for Race and Equity."

Bringing sociologist Mary Pattillo to serve as keynote speaker

KEDILA Nola Girls Digital Storytelling Day Camp, Assistant Director, May 2015- July 2015

Led a team of undergraduate "mentors" to run daily operations of camp

Worked with 70+ teens from public schools in New Orleans in a creative storytelling environment

City, Culture, & Community Symposium Committee, Core Member, October 2014- March 2015

Organized, marketed, and fundraised for 2015 interdisciplinary Tulane graduate student symposium entitled "Social Justice and the City."

Brought sociologist Bradford Hunt to serve as keynote speaker

Alignment Jackson High School Steering Committee, CBO Representative September 2013-August 2014

Met monthly with Jackson Public Schools and community stakeholders to develop community high schools

Based on Alignment Nashville model, goals include increased graduation rates and building academic academies in schools

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Society for the Study of Social Problems

International Association for Research on Service-Learning and Community Engagement

Omicron Delta Kappa

Order of Omega

Phi Eta Sigma

Theta Alpha Kappa

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Analyzing Social Networks: An Introduction, ICPSR Statistical Course, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, August 2015

National College Access Network Conference, Nashville, TN, September 2013

Southern Association for College Admission Counseling Conference, Memphis, TN, April 2013

Mississippi Counselors Association Conference, Gulfport, MS, January 2012

National College Access Network Conference, Las Vegas, NV, September 2012

American Academy of Religion Conference, Atlanta, GA, April 2010

National Panhellenic Conference, Tampa, FL, October 2009

Southeastern Panhellenic Conference, Atlanta, Georgia, March 2009

National Conference of College Women Student Leaders, Georgetown University, DC, June 2008

Religious Studies Department Teaching Fellow Search Committee, Millsaps College, Jackson, MS 2009

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

City, Culture, and Community Graduate Fellowship

Excellence in Religious Studies Comprehensive Examinations

Cum Laude, Presidents List, Deans List at Millsaps College

Don Fortenberry Award - 'most devoted service to Millsaps with no expectation of recognition'

Millsaps Hall of Fame (highest award to four graduating seniors)

Souls Afire Award (community activism)

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

Resident Assistant of the Year 2009

EXPERIENCE

Education Services Foundation's Get2College Center Jackson, MS

East Mississippi Outreach Director and Data Analyst, July 2012- August 2014

- Traveled to high schools around Mississippi to present one hour workshops on college admissions and financial aid
- Counseled students/parents on financing college, primarily low-income families from rural areas
- Selected for NCAN Common Measures grant for data analysis
 - Funded by the Michael & Susan Dell Foundation
- Created, administered, and prepared reports on quality surveys for students, parents, counselors, and teachers; helped to redesign a new system of data collection and create reports for the Board of Directors
- Co-led a team to rewrite ACT preparation material; create and deliver ACT presentations for teachers

International House New York New York, NY July 2011- May 2012

Programs Coordinator

- Responsible for managing 20 expense accounts totaling $200,000+
- Directly supervised 10 graduate student fellows in planning cultural, performing arts, travel, language, and other events
- Collaborated with fellowship recipients and staff to envision, advertise, implement, and supervise an average of 25 events per month for residential community of 700 international graduate student interns
- Led training sessions on office resources and cross-cultural awareness for 50+ Resident Fellows

Jewish Theological Seminary, Office of Residence Life New York, NY August 2010-June 2011

Graduate Assistant

- Served on emergency staff level on-call rotation; mediated student conflicts, counseled student concerns
- Organized application and interview process for Resident Director and Jewish Life Director positions

Teachers College Career Center, Columbia University New York, NY September 2010- April 2011

Project Assistant

- Gained exposure to Career Services field, including employer relations and student counseling
- Assisted counselors with student/alumni programs such as networking events and information sessions

Millsaps College, Department of Residence Life Jackson, MS August 2007- May 2010

Resident Hall Director for New South and Ezelle Halls, August 2009-May 2010

- Managed staff of six resident assistants and assisted in Resident Advisor training
- Accountable for 50+ upperclassmen residents

Director/Resident Advisor for Wellspring Community Service Dorm, August 2008-May 2009

- Redesigned volunteer living/learning community for first-year students
- Tracked 60+ new students participating in weekly service projects such as mentoring and recycling
- Implemented monthly issue-focused projects
- Led roundtable with leaders to facilitate program growth

Resident Advisor, August 2007-May 2008

- Lived with 20+ female first year students as advisor
- Served in emergency on-call rotation

Ford Teaching Fellowship for Lola Williamson, PhD. Millsaps College, Jackson, MS August 2009-May 2010

- Selected to teach six sections of interdisciplinary course, unique to the Millsaps core curriculum
- Helped coordinate and lead two weekly discussion groups designed for incoming freshmen
- Co-presented program-wide lecture on “Peace and Religious Conflict”

Central Mississippi American Red Cross PR Department. Jackson, MS. August-December 2008

Lilly Intern

- Completed 100 hours with Public Relations “mentor” Tamica Smith-Jueitt
- Participated in weekly group to reflect and evaluate personal growth

Congolese Refugee Non-Profit SHADE. Woodstock, South Africa. Summer 2008

Summer Intern

- Co-led weekly youth programs and camp; included former street children from Ons Plek Girls Home
- Designed 10 Year Magazine, Leadership Manual, and Youth Camp DVD
- Received scholarship fund to attend

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Board Member, Young Alumni Advisory Board, Millsaps College, 2014-2016

Tournament Judge, New Orleans Middle School Debate Team League, April 2015

Phonemic Reading Tutor, Brown Elementary, Jackson, Mississippi, August 2009-December 2009